

And then, we went to the summer palace. I thought the Khan was furious because we haven't the 100 christian men, but...

I'm happy to see you, it's a large journey
We brought you the oil and a present from the Pope

Who is the young man
is my son, Marco

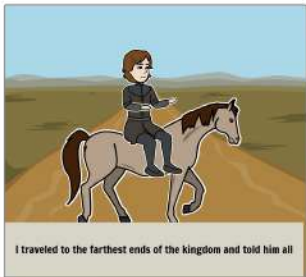

Tell me more about Venice
It's too wet and there are a lot of rats
The Khan liked me, he enjoyed my stories about the west and I often dinned with him

I'll send you to Karazan, to govern your own provinze
So I became the right hand of the Khan

and I enoyed learning about their culture

I traveled to the farthest ends of the kingdom and told him all

I'll make you wax collector

I enjoyed working for the Khan, but, How long?
I wanted to back to Venice

We have to leave China now
How we do it
I'll speak with the Khan

Dear Khan, can we leave China and go back home

NO NO NO NO NO, THIS IS YOUR HOME
BUAAAAHHH

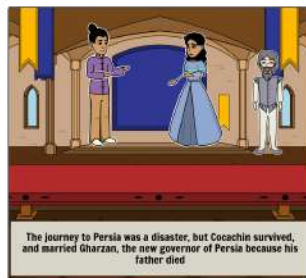

I hate my job
I need a new wife in Persia urgently
The next day I recive a letter from the governor of Persia because his wife has died, it was an opportunity to left Chino

I'll send my daughter Cocachin to Persia
Can teh Polos accompany me

I'll tell all the world about the great Kubtai Khan!
OK

The journey to Persia was a disaster, but Cocachin survived, and married Gharzan, the new governor of Persia because his father died

Kublai Khan is dead
I hate my job

Home, sweet home!
Finally we back to Venice 24 years after we left it

And we show strange things of China

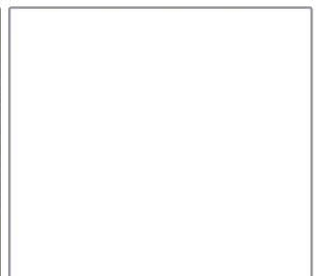

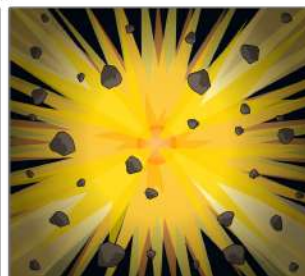

Aaahhhh, dammit
But Venice and Genoa went to war and I went to prison because Genoa soldiers caught me

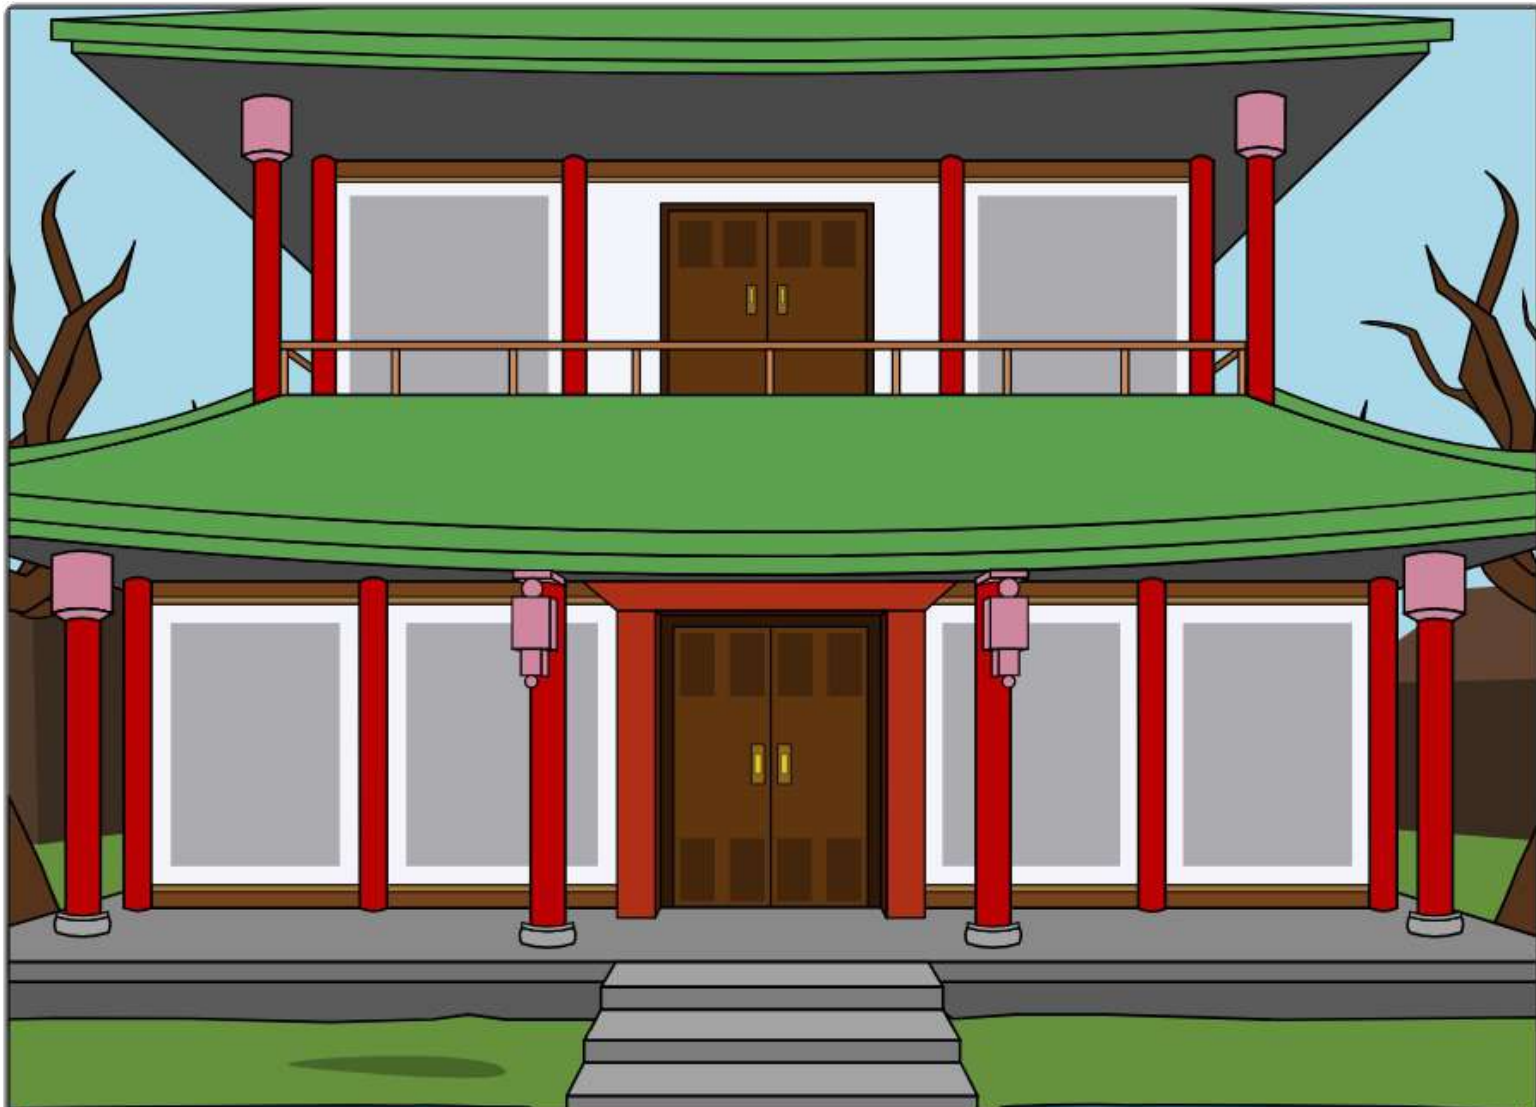

It's all, Rustichelo, now write the book of my life
I'll be milionarie

Thanks for reading

And then, we went to the summer palace, I thought the Khan was furious because we haven't the 100 christian men, but...

I,m happy to see you, it's a large journey

We brought you the oil and a present from the Pope

Who is the young man

Is my son, Marco

Tell me more about
Venice

It's too wet and there are a lot of rats

The Khan liked me, he enjoyed my stories about the west and I often dinned with him

So I became the right hand of the Khan

and I enjoyed learning about their culture

I traveled to the farthest ends of the kingdom and told him all

I'll make you wax collector

I enjoyed working for the Khan, but,
How long?

I wanted to back to Venice

We have to leave
China now

How we do it

I'll speak with the Khan

Dear Khan, can we leave China and go back home

NO NO NO NO NO,
THIS IS YOUR HOME

BUAAAAHHHH

The next day I receive a letter from the governor of Persia because his wife has died, it was an opportunity to leave China

I'll send my daughter Cocachin to Persia

Can teh Polos accompany me

I'll tell all the world
about the great
Kublai Khan!

OK

The journey to Persia was a disaster, but Cocachin survived, and married Gharzan, the new governor of Persia because his father died

Kublai Khan is dead

I hate my job

Finally we back to Venice 24 years after we left it

And we show strange things of China

But Venice and Genoa went to war and I went to prison because Genoa soldiers caught me

It's all,
Rustichelo, now
write the book of my life

I'll be milionarie

Thanks for reading

